Gene Key 17: The Eye

The Gift of Far-Sightedness: Precognition Via the Heart

- My mission is to see beyond opinion, creating open-mindedness.
- I now see how my Divine dissatisfaction serves the Whole.
- I challenge everything that goes against nature and the Whole.
- I naturally see both sides of a situation at the same time.
- I always highlight the deeper issues that underlie any argument.
- I am a true scientist, seeing the whole plan as well as its parts.
- I see & translate number patterns, predicting logical progressions.
- I know which patterns lower human frequency and which raise it.
- I understand the Divine mathematics of evolution.
- Moving beyond the opinion game, I enter a higher sphere of existence.
- My far-sighted heart is the true instrument of human perception.

The Siddhi of Omniscience: The Eye

- Consciousness must express its opinions through the world of form.
- The future is BOTH predetermined AND created as we live.
- I see in all directions simultaneously with my circular inner eye.
- My inner eye links my brain with pure consciousness.
- Consciousness endlessly pours through my single eye.
- The endless repeating fractal pattern of life is all there is.
- Always the same, but always new... the serpent eating its own tail.
- Whatever is happening at this precise moment is absolutely perfect.
- Whatever I do is absolutely correct and in full harmony with all that is.
- Past, present and future is one eternal screen of consciousness.
- I now inhabit the realm of the true seers and oracles.
